Dear ROSEMARIE T WITT

Based upon information from your Unemployment Insurance claim, the Nebraska Department of Labor has enrolled you in Nebraska's Reemployment Services (NEres) Program. The goal of NEres is to help you become reemployed as soon as possible. In order to remain eligible for unemployment insurance benefits, you must participate in the NEres program.

Your next steps:

1. Complete the Skills and Work Values assessments in NEworks.nebraska.gov using the enclosed instructions as a guide.
2. Prior to your NEres appointment, upload your government issued photo ID and Social Security Card in NEworks using the Provide Specific Documents link on the Unemployment Services page. Your appointment is scheduled on the date and time included at the bottom of this letter.
3. Attend the NEres appointment. *Please note, the start time of your appointment will be during the timeframe listed below. You must be available for the full time block. We encourage you to use any time prior to your reemployment session to job search and utilize other NEworks resources such as labor market information

Your career coach will review your resume and assessment results, help you create an employment plan, assess your unemployment eligibility and refer issues to adjudication as needed, and refer you to additional services that fit your needs. If you do not complete the appointment, you may be disqualified from receiving unemployment insurance benefits.

Please contact your reemployment coach immediately if any of the following apply:

- You cannot complete the scheduled appointment during the date and time listed below and need to reschedule.
- You have missed the scheduled appointment.
- You need an interpreter or another special accommodation.
- You have found employment. If currently employed, your employer must provide documentation of your start date using company letterhead or company email. Notification from your employer must be emailed to your career coach.

If you have questions regarding the NEres program, please contact your reemployment coach. For all other inquiries related to unemployment insurance benefits, please call 855-995-8863 or email NDOL.UnemploymentHelp@nebraska.gov.
